BASKETBALL

Norway 26; Berlin A. A. 23

The first professional basketball game staged in town was put on at Norway Opera House, Saturday evening before a large crowd. Local sports fans and the entertainment and gave basketball fans one of the swiftest exhibitions possible on this surface.

Norway was represented by a quintet from Massachusetts picked from professional ranks and swift to the last degree. The Berlin Athletic Association sent down a fast bunch worthy to cope with the best. Both outfits went after the ball with lightning speed and gave the spectators a big taste of regular playing under rules less binding than the college or school system.

Owing to a delayed train Referee Barb Austin couldn't get 'em away until several minutes past nine but the crowd was patient and good natured. Every thing went so smoothly that the game started. Both teams slugged it with a championship clip with Berlin leading. The Norway aggregation held the ball except during the last period when the Berlinites sprinted gamely and picked out the lead. Norway also spurred and in a fine burst of speed overcame the distance and jumped into the band wagon. By clever jockeying the last two minutes Norway purlined the sphere and with clever passing stalled Berlin off until the final whistle.

Dancing followed until midnight to music by Anderson's Orchestra.

Corporation Meeting Tuesday Evening

"Don't forget the Corporation meeting next Tuesday evening at 7:30. Important matters are to be decided.

A sewer is asked for Greenleaf Avenue and Elm Street; to determine what streets are to be sprinkled; also whether or not a night watchman be employed and a motor-fire pump truck with chemical combinations be investigated and appropriate $200 to pay expenses of that committee.

The Corporation tax last year, all told was $10,700 on a $100,000 with $150 per poll. Valuation real estate and personal $1,235,977.00. Money raised by assessment $8,054.00. The expense of the Fire Department was increased last year $1,333.06 and no provision made for it, hence a liability contracted that must be provided for. Balance of sewer fund outstanding, $3,200.00.

Look through and figure the report and be present next Tuesday evening. Bear in mind that Norway's tax will be over 5% this year, if only the ordinary is raised.

Let Us Have Roads Repaired Early

Spring is with us again, so are our roads. Would it not be a good thing to repair our roads in the spring so they may have a little good for the use of the money expended. If we wait till July, August or September there is no time left to use the roads. Further if we cannot repair the roads before fall better skip a year, save the money and start in the next spring.

There are men out of work who can do such work in the spring. Why wait for others with plenty of other work till after planting, after haying or after harvesting.

It is not using those who pay taxes right. It is not using those who use the roads right. It is not using those who want the work right. It is not using our country, trying to recover from the war, right. It is not using our town right.

Mrs. Gertrude H. Barker is visited by her aunt, Mrs. N. D. Gould of Portland.

The house keeping women are "cleaning house" with a vim. They seem to be even more interested in this, their work, than before franchise was granted them. There is an added responsibility to do their share of the world work well.

Thirty-Seven Years Apple Buying

R. L. Cummings of West Paris closed his 37th consecutive year in buying and shipping apples this week. Three car loads and 45 barrels of Ben Davis apples were shipped, part going to Boston and the balance to Louisville, Kentucky. He has shipped 189 car loads and only 5 car loads went to Europe. Freight rates are so high to leave a profit he says. The time was when you could get a barrel of apples to Liverpool and sell them at an expense of about one dollar. It is double that now and the home market is better than the foreign.

Mr. Cummings buys apples from Oxford up the line of the Grand Trunk and at Winthrop and handles many thousands barrels each year. Some years he does better than others but has always managed to pay a hundred cents on a dollar and let it go at that.

He also sells Overland and Willis Knight autos and sometimes a tractor. One year he sold ten tractors, but was able to deliver only seven. Years ago he used to handle horses and used to handle some good ones, but autos have side tracked horses.

Bowser-Frost

Merle Bowser and Marguerite A. Frost both of Norway were united in marriage at the home of the officiating clergyman Rev. O. G. Miller at South Paris, Wednesday evening, March 29. The double ring service was used and they were unattended.

So quietly were their plans executed that even their intimate friends were unaware of the event until something after the ceremony. Although the couple, showers were a success and the couple received generous donations for a number of days.

Mrs. Bowser is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Giles F. Frost, Danforth Street, Norway. She was graduated from Norway High School in 1918 and is chief clerk in the Norway office of the Central Maine Power Co.

The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Sadie Yeaton Bowser of Portland and a grandson of Simon Yeaton of Norway. He is a graduate of Shaws Business College and came from Portland some time ago for employment in the Carroll Jellison Shoe factory. They will reside here.

This is what the News and Critic, Laconia, N. H., says of our former Norway boy, Verne Whitman: "Having heard Brother Whitman sing 'Beautiful Isle of Somewhere' and been lifted off the feet, let us be permitted to say that we are sure that the song was that he added to the grand melody by singing every word so that it could be understood. We must come up to that, brethren and sisters. This getting the human voice down so that it is not doing much better than the piano on account of not articulating so that the words can be understood is a mistake, especially when we have so fine a language as our Anglo-American in which to sing. Work hard, singers, on this point."

A Talk With a Norway Man

Mr. M. W. Sampson, prop. boat transportation business, of 19 Bridge St., Tell of His Experience

There is nothing like a talk with one of our own citizens for giving hope and encouragement to the anxious sufferer from the dread kidney disease. We, therefore, give here an interview with a Norway man.

"It has been some time since I have used Doan's Kidney Pills, but from past experience I can recommend them to anyone in need of a good kidney medicine," says Mr. Sampson.

"A cold settled on my kidney and brought on attacks of backache. I was lame and unable to move any way, the pain in my back was so severe. My kidneys didn't act right and I had dizzy spells. A friend who had used Doan's Kidney Pills with good results advised me to try them so I went to Stone's Drug Store and got three boxes. After I had finished taking them the trouble left and I have been free from kidney disorder since."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Sampson had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

A TRIBUTE TO ST. PETERSBURG, FLORIDA

St. Petersburg, St. Petersburg, I sit and dream of thee, Fair sunshine city of Florida that runs out in the sea.

I view thy waving palm leaves and thy tall and slender pines, Thy gorgeous hues hibiscus and thy rampant flame like vines.

I hear the mocking bird singing love songs to his mate, And I long to be in St. Petersburg, I find it hard to wait.

I smell the groves of orange trees, and see them white with bloom, I feel the music of the South come creeping through my room.

The long festoons of grey green moss are streaming from your trees, As they gently bend their branches to welcome the soft sea breeze.

I feel the give of the sitting sands as I stroll along your shore, O, St. Petersburg, St. Petersburg, I long to be back once more.

I hear the click of the Roque players' ball, the clang of the iron horse shoe, And I see the crowds in Williams Park and hear the doves cooing in the grove.

As the little tots in summer array throw nuts upon the ground, Thy father dares not to eat them up, then turn and strut around.

While the loathsome lay old buzzard, with his great huge wings outspread, Are taken by thousands of tourists around with fancy work—or by men dismayed.

As they watch the dexter fingers, embroider, crochet, knit or tat, Or perchance fashion pine needle baskets, fancy bags, even a hat.

And I'm listening for the concert, I can almost see the Band— O I long for those nights with the myriad lights like a picture from Fairyland.

And now I'm with the gay dressed throng that strolls Central Ave. wide, Extending from Boca Seiza Bay 'en across to Tampa Bay side.

I'm looking through the gift shops for such tempting things as there, From every sort of necklace to Florida vases and sea jewelry rare.

Then I'm off across to the station just to see the trains come in, And watch the expectant faces, and hear the merry din!

Then I take a car to Municipal Pier or walk, 'tis not so far, And if it is I can rest awhile and take a dip in the Spa.

Or have a wonderful photo taken with king fish or real alligator, Or watch the kiddies in their sand playground (for to every age do you cater).

Till the whistle blows and the boats come in from across the Bay of Tampa, Or Bradenton, Fort Dade and Wayne, or Pass-a-grillers with picnic hamper.

St. Petersburg, St. Petersburg, you hold in your city fair, Even all the changes that heart could wish; country, city and seashore are there, My heart is sad as these fall winds blow far up in this Northern clime.

And I sigh for the sky so blue, and fair, And your wondrous winter time! What matters the loss of vast mountains so high, with scenic valleys between? Give me a spot for a wee little cot.

Near your shores, with tropical palms green. —Eva Bradlee Jackson.

NORWAY, DEAR NORWAY Norway, dear rugged Norway, That gave me home and an undimmed love With precious friends both kind and true.

And as pledges from God above— Two jewels that adorned that home And shone so bright and rare— Dear little girls—but one is left, The angel claimed Eleanor fair.

Norway, dear rugged Norway, Sometimes so bleak and cold, I stand and worship off with awe Just at the thought of you, my dear, I see within the mirrored sheen Of thy placid lakes so grand.

Again the trees and the blue sky, As drawn by a painter's hand, A painter's hand! Aye true indeed! Who paints your sunsets rare! Your tiny blades of grass green grass, The dainty daisy there!

The fields of scented clover— The leaves of your weeping tree, Just touched by frost we say— Till by the Painter's hand set free!

Norway, dear rugged Norway, You hold my heart by a strong cord still, I'll always keep a trophy with thee At my "Green Room" on the hill. But when you seem so cold and drear, And your trees grow brown and bare— I shiver and think while you're changing your scenes, I'll hie to St. Petersburg fair. —Eva Bradlee Jackson.

The WELL FROG.

REMEMBER the problem in the old arithmetic about the well frog—how many leaps it will take him to get out if he jumps up four feet and slips back two and a half of every jump? Some folks are like the well frog. They save quite a bit; then a risky investment comes along, or an ardent desire for a bright bauble, and they slide back. When you feel yourself slipping take a firmer grip on your pass book and fix your eye on the Grand Prize.

LF "Cover mouth and nose when you cough or sneeze. If you don't, you'll spread disease." LF
If everyone would take this precaution, there would be fewer epidemics of influenza. Colds whether taking the form of influenza with sneezing, running nose and a rough feeling throat, or with chilly and feverish symptoms, should never be neglected in the earliest stages, if you hope to avoid a disagreeable experience. Don't eat too heartily; drink plenty of water; get to bed early in a well-ventilated room; have your body well-warmed, and be sure to have your bowels move freely.
At the beginning of a cold, there is no better or safer remedy than the true "LF" Atwood's Medicine. Two to four teaspoonfuls will quickly relieve congested bowels, drive out impurities from the system, and help to ward off further troubles. Always have a bottle in the house. PALM SUNDAY

April 9, 1922

This is EVERYBODY-AT-CHURCH DAY for Norway. The Pastors of the town respectfully urge the privilege and the duty of attendance upon the Church of your choice. Let all honor this day by their presence at the hours of worship as given in the Church Notes in this paper. Visit also the Church School and the Young People's meeting. Bring others with you. Make the day bright with the spirit of praise and devotion and, like the Psalmist, you will be glad for your invitation to go to the House of the Lord.

Sincerely your pastors,

C. G. MILLER,

PHINEAS' PHILOSOPHY
By Win Kimball

"Speaking of Fashions"
All the young girls in a lot of the old ones must feel relieved a bit since they have got their ears out to the air, so as they can hear better. After the past year of having their ears all encased in covered up by a bunch of their hair, it will be much cooler for them this summer to have their ears exposed to the gentle zephyrs and besides that we men will have to be careful what we say in their presents cause they can hear better.

I notice that the women are bobbing their hair and it would be pretty mean of Dame Fashion to change the style next season, to long hair, cause how would the deer ladies get their hair longer in so short a time. This short hair does beat the Dutch an I guess that is the reason why they call it the "Dutch Cut".

Out west in one of the cities they passed a curfew law to make all the young girls get into home by ten o'clock as they had to give up this law cause the police couldn't tell the young ones from the old ones, if they was back to.

Looks to me as if the ladies was was havin a race to see whether the front or the back could be cut lowest an still cover the law. I should say that they better make a curfew law for this if it gets much worse. In fact if they didn't go to such extremes in their dress they wouldn't be no curfew law needed cause the men wouldn't hang on the streets so late at night, an then all of us could go home early.

I always said that "Curiosity was the Mother of Invention," an not experience cause we get our Experience after we get in the curious state. If Curiosity wasn't in us humans there wouldn't be half as much peepin from behind the curtains of the front row, as there is now a days.

NORWAY AND VICINITY

Ezra Twitchell Shedd

Ezra Twitchell Shedd, a native of Norway, passed away recently in Wheaton, Ill., where he had resided the past ten years. Mr. Shedd has been a traveling salesman half a century and made his last business trip only two weeks before his death. Funeral services were held at the home in Wheaton and also at the Oakwood Cemetery Chapel with Dr. P. G. Made officiating.

The deceased was the son of John S. and Sarah Coffin Shedd and born in the northern part of Norway on May 11, 1837 and went to Aurora, Ill., at the age of nineteen. He served during the Civil War in the 13th and 36th Illinois Volunteers. Some four years after the war he located in Chicago and resided there until 1912 when he took up his residence in Wheaton.

Mr. Shedd was actively associated with the Saracen Club, the Sunset Club, the Philosophical Society, Sons of the American Revolution, and the first vice president of the Sons of Maine in Chicago. As a staunch Republican, he was ever proud to tell of casting his first vote for Abraham Lincoln.

He was married twice, in 1863 to Helen Searit and in 1894 to Mae Clommons. Several relatives survive, including Ruth N. Beane of Rock Island, Ill., formerly of Norway.

Letter From Henry Tucker

In a letter from Henry Tucker of Topeka, Kansas, he writes: "I have hardly missed a number of the Advertiser since the early '90's. Having run for governor in September, 1895, I left Norway for the West. Though with so many changes of names, old ones gone and new families coming in, it is still a letter from home. The last number received yesterday, I noticed the death of Joseph Hayes of Indianapolis. I have often met him when in Indianapolis as he was on the railroad and ran in and out of Logansport, but if I ever knew, I had forgotten, he was an Oxford boy and quite a jockey in driving Dr. Hayes' horses. He was a cousin of Mrs. James Favors' father. He had a cousin in our Norway Company in the 14th Maine Regiment, coming home before I did. I had a pleasant visit with him a year ago in Indianapolis at the Scottish Rite meeting, when he told me of his home folks and he was planning to go to Norway and Oxford soon. I said I was expecting to go to Boston for 33rd degree of masonry for which I was elected in September the year before. We hoped to soon meet again, but my eyesight failed me very soon after that so I had to give up my Boston trip. I came to Topeka to spend Thanksgiving and have been very contented to stop for the four months. Expect to return to Logansport about the first of April. I am not able to read and write very much, nor recognize friends only when very near to me. Can walk twice a day for 15 or 20 minutes and get very tired though need some exercise. If I ever gain my second sight, I hope to visit the old Maine home again. Fishing material is safe at hand."

Automobile Dealers Held Banquet

The automobile dealers and garage men in Norway and South Paris were served a banquet at the Alberta Cafe on a recent evening. An informal get-together followed, resulting in organizing the Twin Towns Automobile Dealers and Garage Men's Association. Object is for the betterment of all concerned with a desire to improve the service and attract motorists and prospects into the two towns. Officers were elected as follows:

Pres.—Howard P. Maxin, Norway.
Vice Pres.—Francis Shaw, South Paris.
Sec.—Ezra L. Brown, Norway.
General Com.—George E. Hill, Ben Hosmer, Norway; Harry D. Cole, H. L. Gilman, Alton C. Maxin, South Paris.

The recently organized rank team at Pennessawasee Lodge K of P., will confer the rank of Page at the regular meeting Thursday evening. Several hundred dollars has been invested in the new robes and regalia and a great deal of time has been put into team work.

Tickets are out for the big Minstrel Revue, benefit of Henry Stone Post, American Legion, on April 20-21. Tickets can be exchanged for reserved seats at the Legion rooms, Tuesday evening, Apr. 18, commencing at 7 o'clock.

Fred Harriman will run Frank Fogg's garage at South Paris and occupy rooms overhead. Gilman & Stone who operate the Young's Garage near the fair grounds have leased the Harriman bungalow on Winter street and will move their families there when the Harrimans vacate.

The greatest joke for the winter was sprung April 1, when between 13 and 20 inches of damp snow fell in an all day session. Runners replaced wheels and the sidewalk plows were brought from retirement and used during the day. Snow was too moist for drifting and the accompanying Northeaster had little effect toward making a general traffic blockade. Good sledding Sunday and a part of Monday, or will the stuff mushed into a wet combination. Ted Young kept the bus going and furnished service on schedule.

Rev. Robert J. Bruce, pastor of the St. Lawrence Congregational Church, has been elected president of the Church Federation of Portland and South Portland, succeeding Dr. Binney S. Hudson.

Annual meeting of the Norway Fish and Game Association will be held at the Beals Tavern, this Friday evening at 7.30 o'clock. All the members are expected to be present.

Coon Ice Cream Co.,
Burlington, Vt.

Gentlemen—Your letter of March 9 with the accompanying express package containing one hundred dollars in gold was duly received.

I note the hope expressed in your letter that I will get as much pleasure in receiving the package as you do in sending it. If you do get as much pleasure as I have you are certainly a very happy company, for my happiness is only exceeded by my surprise.

Please accept my gratitude and also my very best wishes for the complete success of your business.

Very truly yours,

MRS. HARRY E. FISHER.

Several thousand letters were received during the contest, which closed Feb. 15, and every letter and suggested name was carefully considered. It has been impossible to acknowledge each individual letter, but we heartily appreciate the interest shown in the contest, and assure the contestants that the judges had a hard job on their hands in making a decision with so many good suggestions to consider. The delay in making this announcement was due solely to our inability to get the cut from the engravers.

BETHEL

Robins G. Stearns

Robins Grover Stearns, son of Newton and Anna Brown Stearns, was born in Bethel, Oct. 1, 1878. He received his education in the Bethel schools. He was in partnership with his brother in the lumber business after finishing school and June 1, 1904 married Lilla G. Cummings, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Cummings and he and his bride made their home in Albany with her parents, where he has filled the soil in the summer and carried on lumbering operations in the winter. To them were born three sons and a daughter. Hilda, who is a pupil at Gould's Academy, Leo, 12, Kenneth 9 and Hulda 2 years old. Besides his wife and children, he left a mother, five brothers and a sister, Elmer, Adelman and George of Bethel, Benjamin who resides in Massachusetts and Arthur of Hanover and Mrs. Harold Merrill of Sweden.

Mr. Stearns was an active and valuable member of Round Mountain Grange, 162 and was a man honored by all who knew him, always ready to help all in need and happy to serve his neighbors and friends and happy in making home a happy place for his family.

He passed away March 16 suffering an attack of tonsillitis which terminated fatally when meningitis developed.

The funeral was held at his late home Rev. J. H. Little paid a well deserved tribute to his memory as a devoted father and kind neighbor. The floral tributes were many.

Kenneth H. Stearns

Kenneth Henry Stearns, son of Anna and the late Robin Grover Stearns, passed away March 24th ten days after the death of his father. He was taken ill at the same time of his father's illness and the disease terminated in pneumonia. Little Kenneth was a very bright, lovable boy of nine years and during his short life had endeared himself to all who knew him. He was too ill to know the loss of his father and he was soon called to join him in the Heavenly home where there is no more sickness, pain or parting.

Funeral services were held at the home where the beautiful flowers from friends and relatives were a silent expression of their love. Deep sympathy is expressed for the wife and children who have been called to bear this double sorrow and for the mother and brothers and sister. Rev. J. H. Little spoke tender words of comfort repeating at the close the beautiful poem of Longfellow's, "The Reaper."

NOW DO MY WORK WITH EASE

Because Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Restored My Health

Hornell, N. Y. — "I was in bad health but there didn't seem to be any one thing the matter with me.

I was tired out all over and it was an effort for me to move.

I was irritable and could not sleep nights and had trouble with my bowels and at my periods. It seemed that nearly everyone around me knew of your medicine and wanted me to try it.

so at last I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Tablets and Lydia E. Pinkham's Blood Medicine and improved every day. I do all my own work now except the washing and do it with ease. I can accomplish as much in a day now as it would have taken me a week to do last winter and I try to get every one I know to take your medicine to build them up. You are welcome to use this letter as a testimonial if you like."—Mrs. CHAS. BAKER, 21 Spencer Ave., Hornell, N. Y.

In almost every neighborhood there are women who know of the value of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. They know because they have taken it and have been helped. Why don't you give it a trial?

TAXATION AND HIGH COST OF LIVING

In view of the present stagnation and uncertainty in almost all industrial businesses and the universal shrinkage in property values, what ever parties are responsible for increased burdens of taxation will be execrated as public enemies. The class of mere consumers, already large, is constantly increasing. It was hoped that normal conditions would have been brought about in the United States during the year 1921, but to all appearances they are still in the dusk of the distant future.

The demand for normal conditions was the real factor that decided the elections in 1920. This was promised the people. "How Long, Oh Lord Must They Wait?" for the fulfillment of this promise. It is an age of small men, small bore politicians and wire pullers, with few exceptions here and there, run the affairs of nation, state and municipality. It's a pity that it is so, but by no act can a round peg be fitted into a square hole.—Editorial Comment.

When a scheme is started to raise the rate of taxation study to find out what benefit the promoters expect to derive from it, if it goes through.—Comment.

Senator Wm. E. Borah of Idaho says, that it is a dangerous situation when the patience of the taxpayers as now, has reached its limit.—News Item.

One big Massachusetts town has started the year with a tax rate of $25.00. Good example to follow.—Item.

The wire pullers of "The Interest" do not appear to be making much headway among the mass of the people in their efforts to shove Governor Baxter off the political highway. "They find themselves a long way from home with their garments still on the close line."—Comment.

Congressman Underhill of Massachusetts says that the time is fast approaching when we shall have but two classes in this country,—those in official life supported by those out.—News Item.

Ex-Mayor John F. Fitzgerald of Boston says that the Middle West menaces the New England shoe trade. They are manufacturing many classes of goods there at from 25 to 50 cents a pair cheaper than in Massachusetts.—News Item.

A good man can't be kept down except with doctor's bills and taxes.—Boston Herald.

The Department of Agriculture reports a shrinkage of nearly three and a half billion of dollars in the last two years, in farm values in this country or over 41 per cent. And the bottom has not yet been reached. Other property must shrink in value as well as farms. The department has been gathering statistics on sales of meat in retail stores. The investigation covered 400 stores in 30 cities of the country. The selling cost per pound averaged nearly twice in 1921 what it did in 1913.—News Items.

Illidit booze dealers are getting ferried in Boston. One convicted for selling liquor and sent to jail is reported to have made $150,000 since he got out.—News Item.

Maine drovers complain that excessive freight rates to Brighton, Mass., are destroying their business. It costs nearly as much to ship their cattle as from Chicago. In the good old times, they took them there on foot.—News Item.

The Maine Central has made a ten per cent cut in certain freight rates. They have ascertained out in Kansas that "the public be damned" on the coal question, won't be submitted to.

Under Governor Allen's administration a way was found to deal with the coal barons and the price boosting operatives under the management of labor unions. They started in to increase wages with less hours of labor and when threats failed they struck and left the mines. The Legislature was convened and the mines taken over temporarily by the state. Volunteers ran the mines for a time and the people were supplied with coal. A law was passed to establish a court to prevent such strikes. This law has recently been held by the Supreme Court of the United States to be good, and some of the labor Union officials jailed. Governor Henry Allen looms up big on the political horizon. "We ought to have such a man as he to tackle the coal situation in the country."—Editorial Comment.

The Famous Buick Valve-In-Head Motor Powers The Buick "Four"

The powerful Buick valve-in head motor has been an outstanding Buick feature for 20 years. Its unflinching dependability, stamina and certainty of performance have justly earned for it the unstinted admiration of the entire motoring public.

The Buick "Four" is equipped with the reliable Buick valve-in-head motor. This is merely another indication of the fact that the Buick "Four" maintains Buick standards of quality throughout every element of its construction. It is Buick through and through.

MAINE TO BE REPRESENTED AT THE NEW YORK TRAVEL SHOW

The first step in the Campaign by the State of Maine Publicity Bureau to nationally advertise Maine, is by placing an exhibit at the National Travel Show, which will be held in the Grand Central Palace, New York City, beginning March 25th. The National Travel Show is devoted to the recreational features of the entire country, various sections, resorts, etc., maintaining exhibits, and will be visited by approximately four-hundred thousand people.

The State of Maine Publicity Bureau has secured ample space, and will have representatives to "tell the story of Maine" to the visitors at the show.

With the unsurpassed attractions of Maine as a recreational center, it is unquestioned that hundreds of visitors will learn of her mountains, streams, lakes, and sea coasts for the first time, and will visit the State during the coming year.

The State of Maine Publicity Bureau is announcing its temporary organization as follows:

Pres., Hiram W. Ricker, Poland, Me. Vice Presidents, Lewis B. Goodall of Sanford, Me., C. S. Hichborn of Augusta, Me., W. T. Cobb of Rockland, Me., H. A. Chapman of Bangor, Me.

Treasurer, Henry P. Rines of Portland, Me.

These officers with the Board of Directors which consists of three representatives from each locality in the State will formulate the policy and superintend the operation of the State of Maine Publicity Bureau.

The Board of Directors will be assisted by local Advisory Committees, the duties of which are to co-operate with the board in securing information regarding the interests of their respective communities. These boards will be established all over the State as rapidly as time will permit.

The following boards have been organized to date:

Kennebec-Somerset Board, Augusta Division, Chas. S. Hichborn, Pres.

Waterville District, Waterville Division, Dr. J. Frederick Hill.

Skowhegan Division, Carleton M. Holt, President.

Eastern York Advisory Board, Judge Geo. L. Emery, President.

Knox-Lincoln Advisory Board, Geo. W. Batchelder, President.

Aroostook County Advisory Board, Charles H. Fogg, President.

Washington County Advisory Board, Dr. W. M. Miner, Pres. (This board will in all likelihood take in the border cities of New Brunswick.)

Oxford County Advisory Board, James W. Harris, President.

Organization meetings will be held in Bangor, Lewiston and Portland during the coming week, which will practically complete the State Organization.

Membership Units or shares of $25 each will be underwritten in each locality, insuring sufficient financial backing to successfully complete the proposed program.

Central Information Bureau will be established and National advertising released not later than May first, so that the State of Maine Publicity Bureau can become immediately effective in securing additional visitors this season, as well as advertising the industrial and commercial opportunities of the State; thus giving an immediate return for the effort expended.

WAS NO GOOD UNTIL TANLAC BUILT HIM UP

Manchester Man in Splendid Shape Now and Says He Feels Like a Brand New Person.

"Up to the time I had a spell of flu and pneumonia, two years ago, I was about as healthy and rugged as any man; but after that I was no more good physically until Tanlac straightened me out," is the unqualified statement of William Card, 17 South Main St., Manchester, N. H.

"My stomach was left in an awful fix and I suffered all the time from indigestion. Every morning, after a light breakfast, I would become so nauseated I could hardly retain what I had eaten. I was troubled a great deal with gas and had absolutely no appetite. My suppers consisted principally of bread and milk and I was so constipated that I had to take some sort of laxative every night."

"A number of my friends were taking Tanlac, so I went at it myself, and every day I felt better and could see more and more improvement. I was away down in weight but gained ten pounds in a very short time and kept getting stronger."

"That weak feeling left by the flu went away and I started to work. I began to eat well, but was careful, as I didn't want any return of my old troubles. Now I can eat almost anything without harm, sleep well at night, and feel like a new man. What it takes to build a man up and get him to feeling right Tanlac certainly has it."

Tanlac is sold by A. L. Clark Drug Co., Norway; Stowell Bros., Locke's Mills; R. E. Pinkham, East Waterford; W. H. Brown, East Stoneham; Heald, Stearns & Kimball, Lovell; H. L. Hutchins Co., North Fryeburg; L. E. Rounds & Co., Waterford, and P. G. Barrett, Welchville, Me.

OLD BILL SAYS

Stow, Me., March 20th, 1922.

Dear Editor: When I was a boy there lived a man here in Stow and people called him crazy, but he was the brightest man I ever knew. His name was Bill Stow.

Bill Stow was a gentleman and a scholar, a master of two languages, impudence and saucy."

Well, this morning the above saying was forcibly impressed on my mind when some Fryeburg Academy scholars passed my house. One young cub, you can't call him anything else, began hooting and shouting. "Hi, are ye, Will," as soon as they got in sight and kept it up way past the house. He sounded like a graduate.

Now I say the parents of that cub are foolish to waste good money on him; for he is master of two languages, "Impudence and Saucy," and they can't make him much more if he goes the four years to high school. It is cost the town of Stow $131.00 last year for the superintendence of two schools, one school had four and the other about fourteen and I guess they had as many as twenty-seven graduates and some of those scholars claim they are ready for high school next Spring.

Well, I know that they can't keep tally for a game of 63, but they are master of the two languages.

I thank God that I have no scholars the way things are going in our schools to-day, they are not learned to spell that will hear of, or read by sight; what will they do when it comes to writing from memory—its cost the town of Stow $131.00 last year for the superintendence of two schools, one school had four and the other about fourteen and I guess they had as many as twenty-seven graduates and some of those scholars claim they are ready for high school next Spring.

Women and Misses seeking new clothes will undoubtedly find this showing of ours teeming over with interest. The new styles are wonderfully appealing and distinctive, fabrics are of exceptional quality. Come, see this new apparel. There are exclusive style developments in every model shown.

THE NEW SUITS

So very distinctive and attractive that they simply can't help being admired. The style notes in these Spring suits are well worth your while to study, if only to be well informed on the season's fashions.

Navy Blue Tricotine Suits, $22.50, $24.75, $27.50, $29.75, $34.75, $42.50, $48.50, $45.00.

Tweed, Sport Spun, Home Spun and Jersey in all the new Spring shades, very much in style, not expensive.

$12.50, $14.95, $16.50, $19.75, $24.75

THE NEW COATS

The dominating style influences for Spring are thoroughly represented in this display of smart coats.

Swagger Coats are fashioned of imported and domestic tweeds, polo mixtures and a variety of soft, fleecy fabrics. Raglan or set-in sleeves, pockets of many shapes. Dressier coats are as luxurious and graceful as their fabrics sound.

Coats $13.50, $16.50, $19.75, $24.75 up to $59.50

THE NEW DRESSES

Many new models have just arrived and are on display. You'll agree with us, when you see them, that they are the smartest styles you have seen for a long time. They come in all the popular materials, the new colorings, the new long waisted effect, and the new sleeves, various new trimming ideas. Canton Crepe is the leading material while there are many others.

Dresses $13.95, $19.75, $24.75, $29.50, $34.50, $37.50, $39.50.

SHIRT WAISTS

The vogue for tweed suits has brought with it the demand for those smart flat collar waists. The most noticeable is the Bramley style, turn back cuffs, some have pleated frilling, some have the collar and cuffs with piping of imported gingham, others with collar and cuffs embroidered in colors.

Priced $1.95, $2.45, $2.95

Harlan Littlefield went to the C. M. G. Hospital at Lewiston last week and had his throat operated on. His aunt, Minnie Littlefield, accompanied him and spent a few days with her aunt in Auburn.

Mrs. M. Elizabeth Raynor entertained the Sewing Bee last week. There was a good bit of sewing accomplished. At noon all adjourned to the dining room and had ample justice to the delicious lunch served by the hostess.

Mrs. C. E. Files and Mrs. W. E. Raynor will be the hostesses for the Congressional Sewing Circle at the vestry,

Thursday evening, April 6. Supper will be served about 6 p. m. and will be followed by the comedy, "The Jonesville Sewing Circle." Owing to the illness of part of the players, it was not given two weeks ago as intended.

The dance given at the K. of P. Hall Thursday evening by Thaxter Littlefield and Henry Trimbak was really the greatest social success of the season.

Flint-Saunders Orchestra furnished music for a merry party of dancers until a late or rather early hour. The presence of such a large number of high school students from this and nearby towns who are, at home for the Easter recess, added much to the gaiety of the party.

Probably the proudest boy in Bridgton is Richard Doge, who caught a 10 pound cusk through the ice of Long Lake the other day. Nobody recalls a larger cusk ever having been taken from this lake.

The fish was 33 inches long.

Spring Medicine

Now Needed by Nearly Every One to Purify the Blood and Build Up Strength.

Few come to these trying spring days without weariness, debility, that "tired feeling," caused in large part by impure, de-vitalized blood. Change of season often "takes all the strength out of me," as many people say.

The tonic and blood purifier needed is Hood's Sarsaparilla. It quickly dispels that exhausted feeling, enriches the blood and benefits the mental, muscular and nervous systems. In a word, says a druggist, "Hood's Sarsaparilla is our most dependable restorative." Only the best tonic and purifying ingredients used—roots, herbs, barks and berries, such as physicians often prescribe. A record of 46 years successful use. It will do you good. Try it this spring. A mild laxative, Hood's Pills.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

IS THE IDEAL SPRING MEDICINE.

Boy Scout Activities

Harold C. Perham of West Paris, Scout Executive of Oxford County Council B. S. A., was in town this week after an extended campaign through Rumford, Mexico and Dixfield. He reports the Boy Scout movement gaining rapidly in Oxford County with eleven registered troops and 251 boys in good standing. Five months ago only two troops were efficient in any way, others appeared luke warm or dead. During his last survey he found activity everywhere, with prominent leaders in business, in lodges and religious denominations solidly behind the movement in their respective communities.

Scout Executive Perham has been instrumental in arranging a program conforming to local conditions and needs, independent of National Headquarters. The idea is democratic and permits initiative to local advisory boards but not conflicting with the fundamentals of the boy scout movement. Service is the watchword and another strong point is keeping faith with the boys in small matters.

Oxford County is organized as follows: West Bethel, 20 boys, Scout Master C. Bennett, assistant G. Cushing; Bethel, 20, Scout Master C. Howe, assistant B. Vandenberg; Dixfield, 15, Scout Master Locke's Mills, 15, Scout Master L. Pettin; Bryant's Pond, 20, Scout Master F. Cummings, assistant R. Gilmore.

West Paris, 32, Scout Master Earl Bacon, assistant R. Chase; South Paris, 26, Scout Master Earl Clifford; Norway, 26, Scout Master Edward H. Brown.

West Sumner, 15, Scout Master S. Brown, assistant, C. Ryerson; Buckfield, 15, Scout Master Carl Fuller, assistant F. Dresser.

Canton, 30, Scout Master C. Lamb, assistant A. Turrel; Dixfield, 32, Scout Master R. Fowler.

Mexico has been organized with the following advisory board: Pres. E. H. Dorr; Sec.-Treas. John Johnson. The boys will be organized Friday evening.

The boys will be organized Friday evening with two scout masters and two assistants already signed. Enthusiasm points strongly to a large troop.

Rumford Advisory Board is well under way with John Stephens president and Lewis Irish secretary and treasurer. Industrial conditions have delayed definite action the past few weeks, but a boost from the business men is sending the movement along rapidly.

Oxford is the unorganized town in his district on the Grand Trunk, but affairs crystallizing for a live troop there before many weeks.

Executive Perham will organize the western part of the county during early summer and predicts Oxford County Council will be the largest and strongest in Maine before the end of three months.

The summer camp for Boy Scouts at Locke's Mills is an assured. Registered troops will furnish tents, each boy who attends will bring blankets and camp kit. Only a small weekly fee will be asked to cover the cost of "chow." Boating, swimming, hiking and instruction in camping and training are on the program.

HISTORY OF OLD INDUSTRIES

Somerville, Mass.

Editors of Norway Advertiser:

Few country weekly papers print as much local historical matter as does the Advertiser, but you will pardon me for saying that I think you might well do more in that line. A particular weakness in local history is knowledge regarding old-time industries. Let me cite a case in point.

The late Fred Holmes, the late Ephraim H. Brown, and the late Peter Frost at various times all told me about a pottery which once occupied a site on the sandy soil of Oxford somewhere below Norway on the road toward Wakeville or toward Oxford village. I do not know the exact location, but do remember being told that the clay lay under the sand and had to be dug out of pits. I have an impression that it was running till about the time of the Civil War, but do not know. The only things which I can certainly say were made there were great coarse milk pans. My grandmother Morton, in Buckfield, used to have some milk pans said to be from a pottery in Oxford, but they were all broken and gone now or quite 40 years ago.

Now, I happen to wish to know who operated that pottery, when they operated it, where they located the trade, how the stuff was handled on the market, and where they are today any specimens of the product. Can't you get somebody to write to the Norway Advertiser and tell about these things? I am important to local history fast passing into oblivion.

There used to be in Oxford county many fine specimens old-time iron work for household use. Were those made by some artist or blacksmiths in the county, or were they brought from outside? If they were home products, who made them? It is not at all impossible that there was an exceptionally skillful cutler in the county 100 years or 125 years ago. If so, his name ought to be preserved.

There certainly were several cabinet makers who did real art work in wood in various Oxford county towns. One of them was my grandfather, Captain Elisha Morton, Jr., of Oxford, who died in 1836, and who were the others? Was there a coppersmith or silversmith early in the county? It ought to be known, with full particulars, before it is too late.

What say you? If somebody will furnish the facts, you will print them in the paper, won't you?

With best wishes,

D. Crommett Clark.

We certainly would be glad to publish any sketches on the above subjects. Who will furnish them? Sign your name and give postoffice address and send to this office.—Editor.

Studebaker

A SIX for the Price of a Four!

You can buy a Studebaker LIGHT-SIX today at a four-cylinder price!

But you cannot buy Studebaker LIGHT-SIX performance in ANY Four.

You get more for your money in the Studebaker LIGHT-SIX than in any other car in the thousand-dollar class. Because:

- (1) Studebaker had the biggest volume in its history in 1921.
- (2) Studebaker sales in 1921 were 29 per cent greater than in 1920 while the total of all other makes was 45 per cent less than in 1920.
- (3) Studebaker is the world's largest builder of six-cylinder cars—builds nothing but sixes.

Studebaker builds the LIGHT-SIX for less than it costs most manufacturers to turn out a four, because it is produced complete in the Studebaker plants.

The average list-price of the better-known fours is $1200. This does not include the high-priced fours. The Studebaker LIGHT-SIX Touring Car lists at only $1045.

Studebaker builds economically and sells at a low price because of continuous large volume, efficient production and skillful purchase of materials.

The new low price of the LIGHT-SIX was established without lowering the quality one iota. Its intrinsic value is unsurpassed in the industry, regardless of price. Today's price of the Studebaker LIGHT-SIX is the lowest at which it has ever been sold.

The Oldest Paint in the Newest Form

Dutch Boy Liquid Lead

Liquid Lead is simply the old-fashioned lead-in-oil, ready for use, mixed by the manufacturer of the white-lead instead of by the user. It is white paint and does not come colored, but can be tinted to any desirable color. It has the quality of the best white-lead paint, the convenience of being able to start painting as soon as the can is opened and the satisfaction of using a Dutch Boy product.

Dutch Boy Flat White

When a flat or semi-gloss finish is desired, as for interior walls and woodwork, use Dutch Boy Flat White. This is also a pure white-lead paint, but is designed to give flat effects, delicate in color, rich in tone, yet durable and washable.

Dutch Boy Paint is Economical

because of its great spreading capacity, which makes its cost per square foot less than many paints which cost the same per gallon and also because of its great wearing qualities. As it contains only pure materials and weighs over twenty pounds per gallon, it can be thinned and tinted in any manner desired. Call and investigate or send for a descriptive booklet.

OTISFIELD

Work of Otisfield School
The State educational department has been notified that the boys and girls of Oak Hill School in the town of Otisfield have worked out a project which is unique and original. Under the guidance of their teacher, Edna J. Robinson, a study has been made of their local school conditions, especially of their own school-house and grounds and a comparison of these conditions with standard country school arrangements. As a part of the work in arithmetic various measurements have been made and computations of lighting area, floor surface, cubic air space, playground space, etc.

Investigation has been made of the reasons for unsatisfactory method of heating and the dangers of lack of ventilation and poor toilet arrangements. The ideal arrangements of this kind have been investigated and described.

As a summary of the project, an attractive booklet has been prepared. In the foreword, it is stated that "the purpose of this booklet is to point out some of the requirements of a standard school and, by way of contrast, to show how far below the standard our school is."

The booklet is illustrated by snapshots, pictures cut from magazines and catalogues and a set of especially attractive drawings made by Crystal Shackley, a pupil in Grade 6. On opposite pages are shown standard school arrangements and the arrangements at the Oak Hill School. Pictures of playgrounds, buildings, arrangement of light, heating and ventilation, seating and school equipment are effectively contrasted.

It is interesting to note that in matters of school equipment, where the activities of school itself have made possible additions of worth while material, the contrast is not especially marked as this little school through the efforts of its Improvement League, has made some fine improvements in its equipment. The Victorians in use in the school is the property of the teacher who has purchased this for use as a part of her teaching equipment.

The last pages of the book are devoted to maps of the neighborhood and of the town and from the latter the possibilities of consolidation of schools are shown.

This little booklet already has very effectively brought to the attention of citizens the possibilities of school improvement.

We Know Batteries!

Repairing batteries may look easy—but it isn't!

To be successful, a repair man has to know just how to handle the plates that hold the active material that keeps life in the battery. He has to know how to take care of the insulators that keep the plates apart. He has to know when it is cheaper for you to buy a new battery than to have the old one repaired.

Bring your battery in to Headquarters—no matter whether it's a Willard or not. We'll tell you what it needs, if anything, and much the cost will be—and whether repairs will pay or not.

Edward and Gladys Berkley after spending their vacation at the Manse, have returned to their studies.

The almost impossible traveling of last Sunday caused an exhibition of pluck by one of our trained nurses, Mrs. Clara Tucker. Early Sunday morning she received an urgent call by telephone and her husband started with her on the five mile journey, but when the journey was about half accomplished they knew that the horse couldn't take them to their destination in the sleigh, so Mr. Tucker took the horse from the shafts and Mrs. Tucker went the remainder of the way on horseback, her husband walking beside her. We think she must have some of the blood of the early pioneers in her veins.

When Accidents Happen

You pour a few drops of peroxide on the wound. "That peroxide," you say, "is full of life." You are sure of that, because it bubbles and foams when it comes in contact with the wound.

The peroxide may have stood in the medicine closet for four or five months, perhaps. Despite this fact, the peroxide kept its strength. The label tells why. The peroxide was made by Parke, Davis & Co., the kind we sell.

Two New Worlds Records for Durant Car!

Los Angeles, Cal., April 2—Tommy Milton won the championship sprint automobile race at the Speedway today, taking the second preliminary 25 mile sprint in 13 minutes 1.49 seconds an average speed of 115.02 miles an hour and the final fifty event in 26 minutes 1.92 seconds, an average of 115.2 miles an hour. He drove a DURANT.

Milton was said by A. A. officials to have established new world's records in both events.

If a car can stand up running at this speed for 26 minutes, there is no question but what they are built of the right material and put together mechanically right.

No car ever built is easier to care for and to keep in perfect running condition. This has been accomplished to avoid the neglect that often occurs when lubrication points or adjustments are hard to reach.

Everything possible has been done in designing the Durant Car for the convenience of the user, and to assure him long and dependable service.

Come in and let us tell you and show you some of the good points in this particular car.
